Time To Remember

To Fort Hill students, a "Time to Remember" is a time to ponder over all the memories of the 1959-60 school year. As we venture into the past, we remember the numerous activities, occasions, and achievements of many deserving students of whom we are very proud; we remember the underclassmen and the 1960 Senior Class to whom we pay tribute; and we remember our instructors to whom we owe many thanks for all accomplishments.

In Memoriam

With sincere sympathy and never-ending devotion, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty presents the "Sabre" in memory to Miss Regina McCully.

Miss McCully will always be remembered for her kindness and consideration throughout her tireless sixteen years of faithful service in the Social Studies and English Departments and in the Junior High Student Council of Fort Hill.

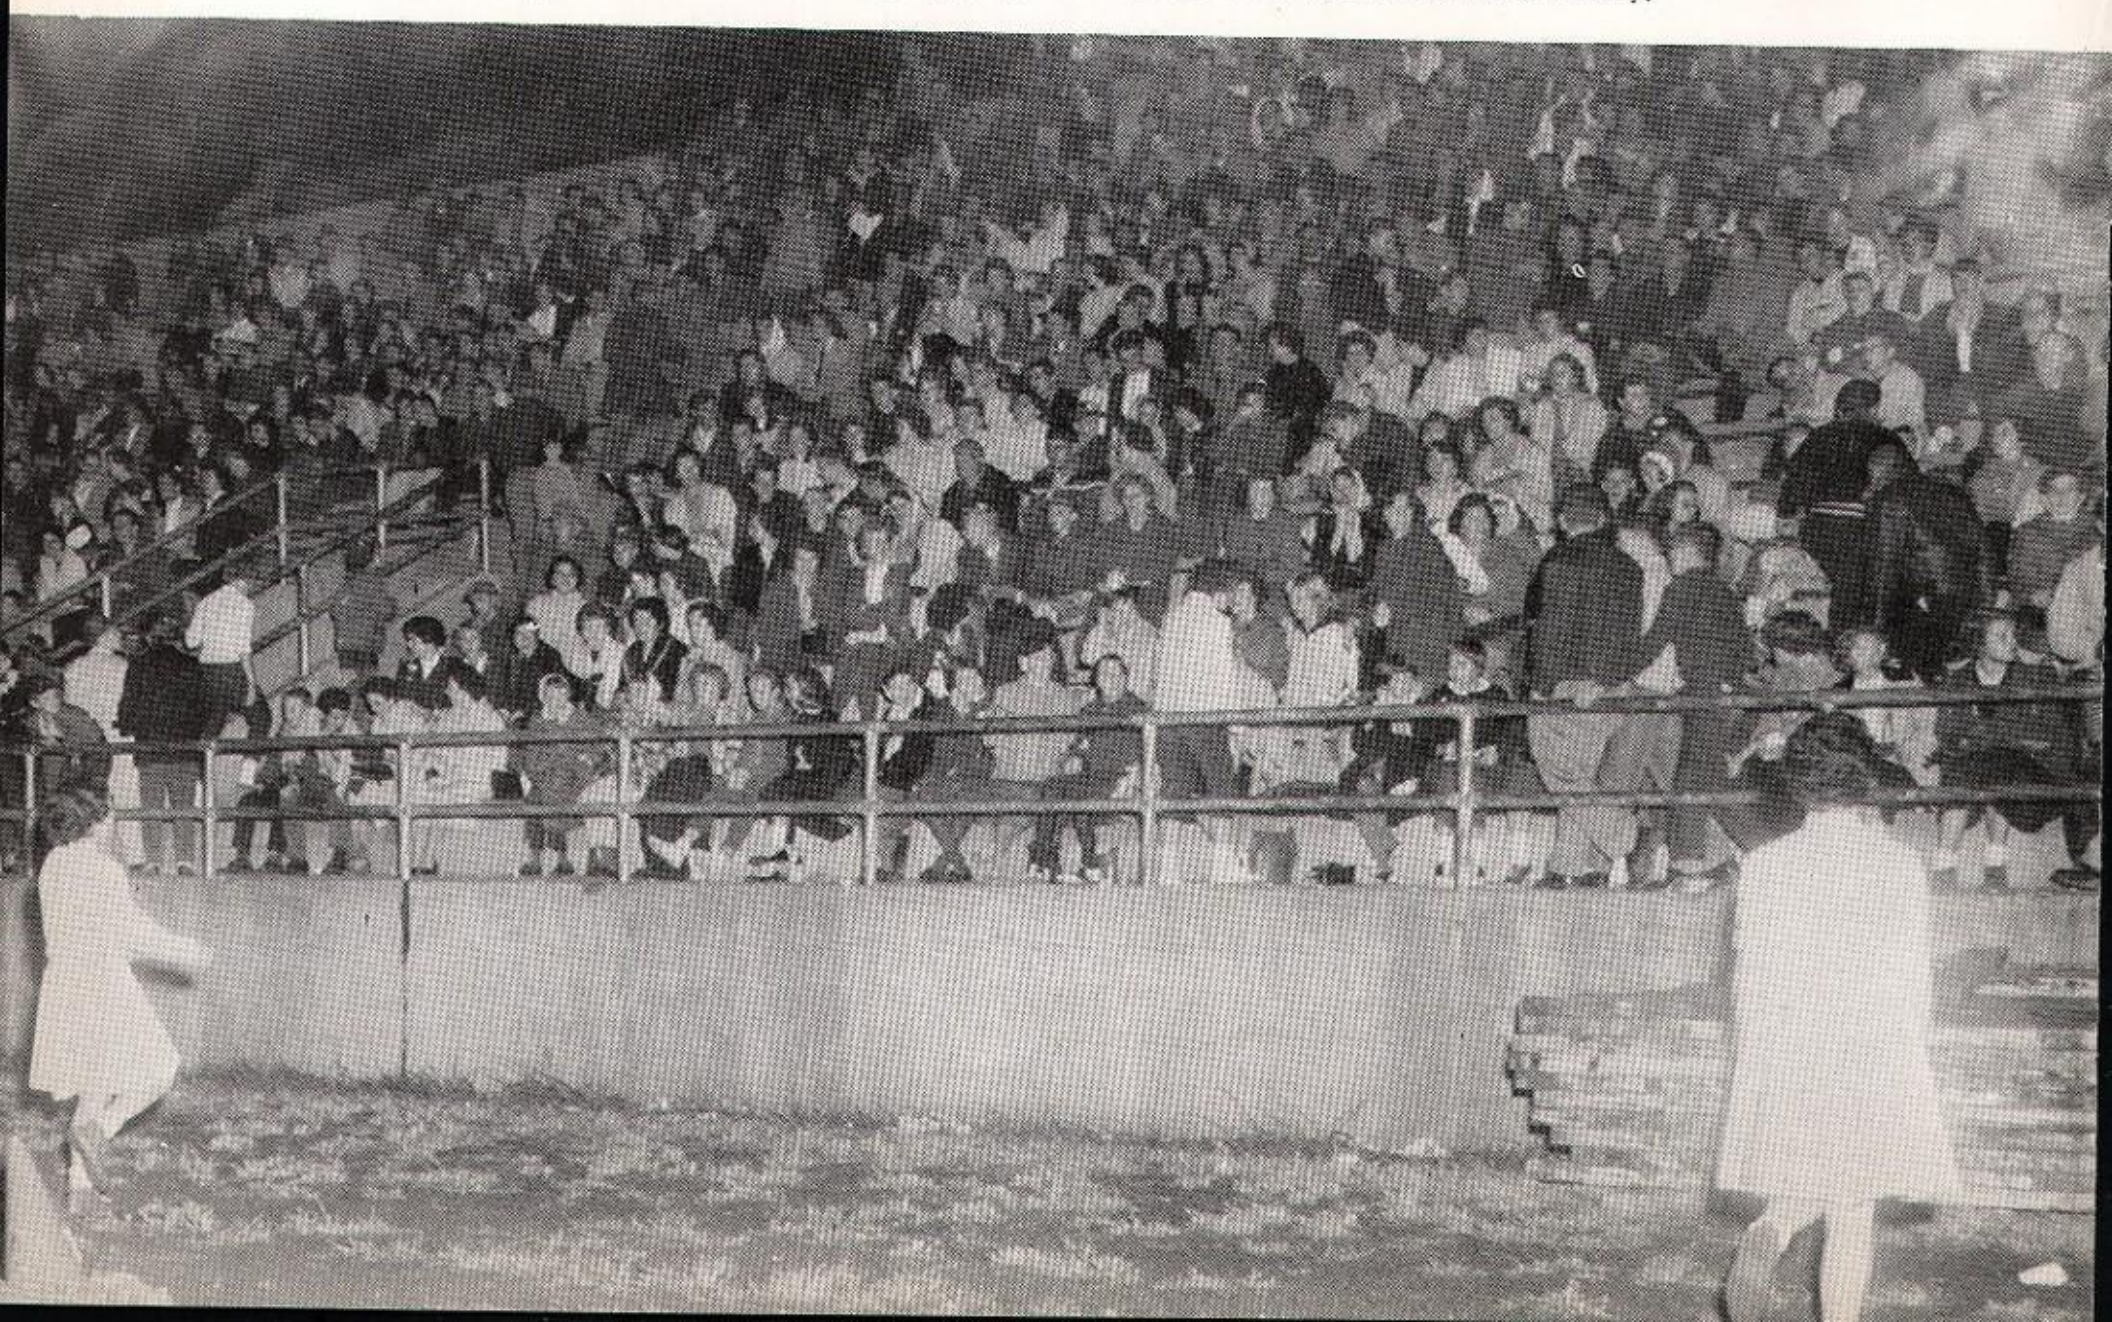
Her memory will linger in the hearts of those whom she has assisted with problems and of those whom she has guided to success.

Autumn

Autumn

As we begin the 1959-60 school year we find ourselves surrounded by the beauty of Autumn. The annual Thanksgiving Day food drive, the Turkey Day football game, the many scholastic projects, and the splendid performance of the band are a few of the many activities in which we participate during September, October, and November. Come with us, now, as we remember these thrilling events.

Nancy Huff and Patty Phillips pep up the crowd to cheer their team on to victory.

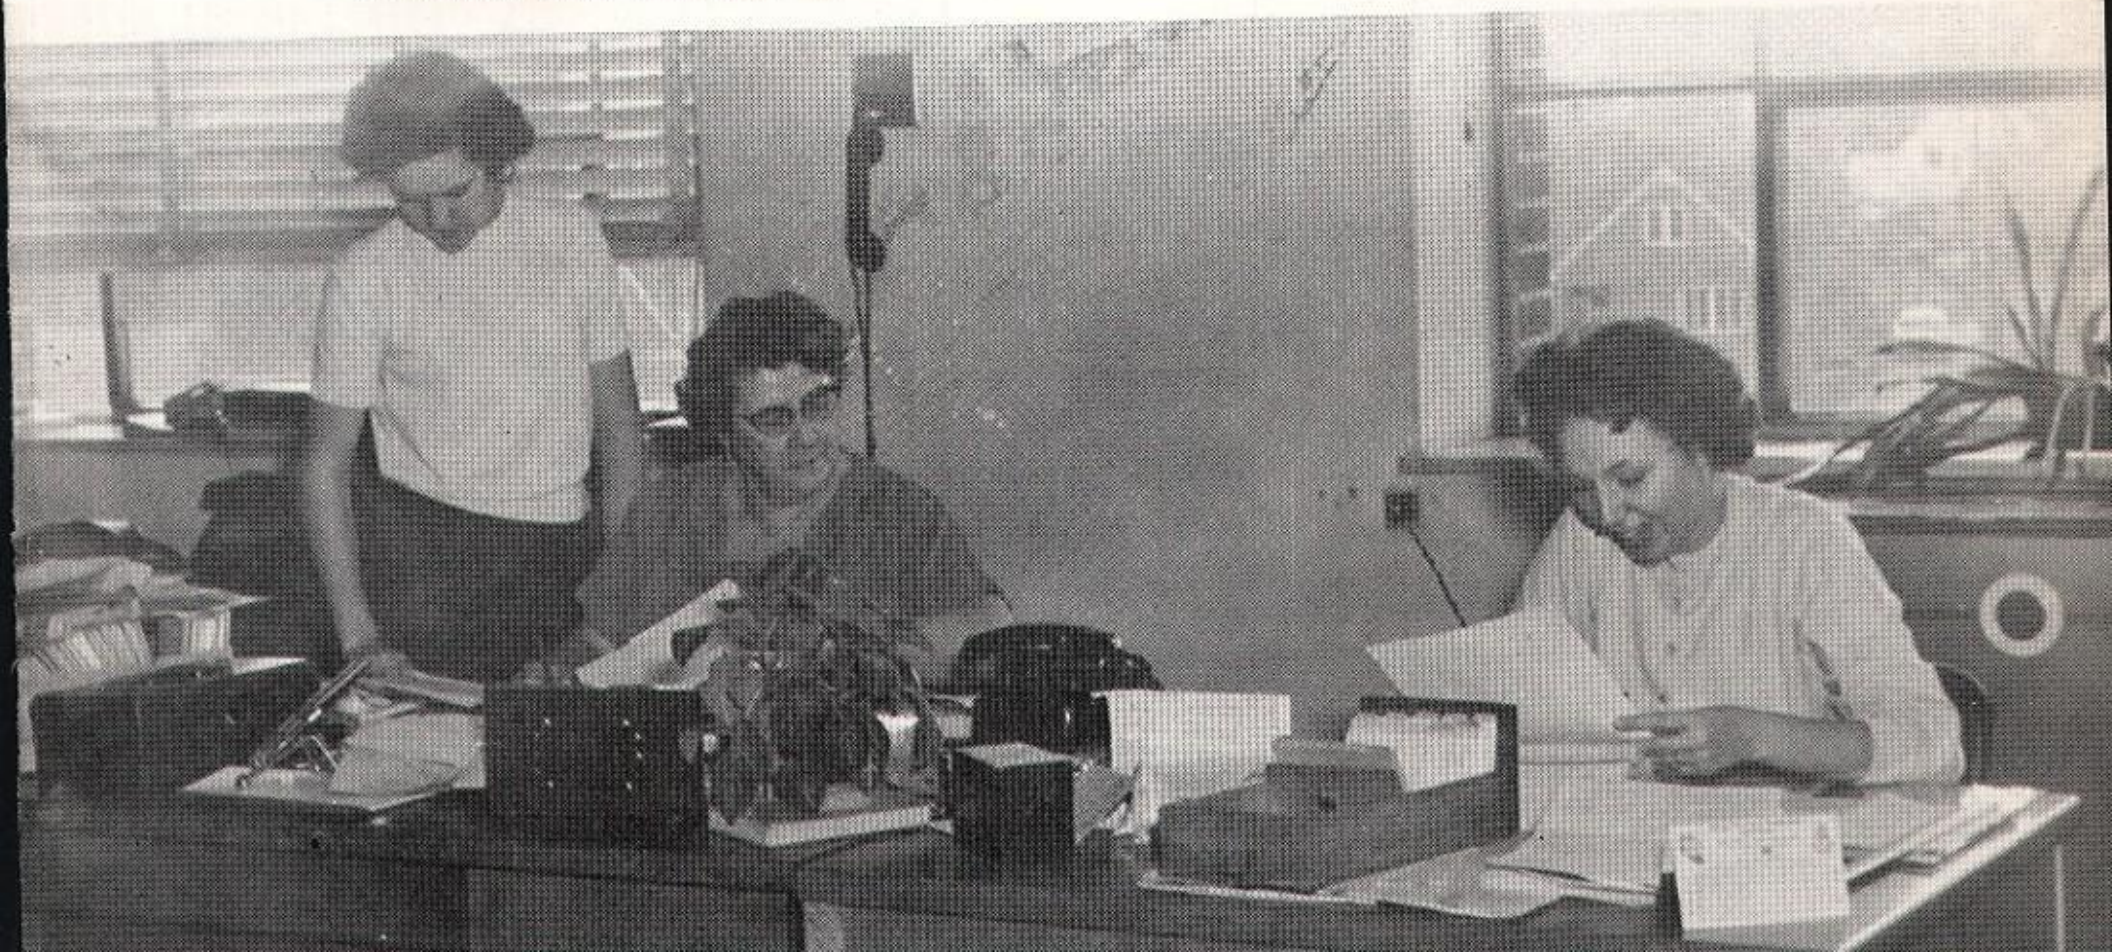


Victor D. Heisey, Principal

Fort Hillians will always remember their principal, Mr. Victor D. Heisey, who has placed his leadership on the threshold of greater growth. A courteous leader, a capable educator, and a good disciplinarian are a few of his many fine traits.

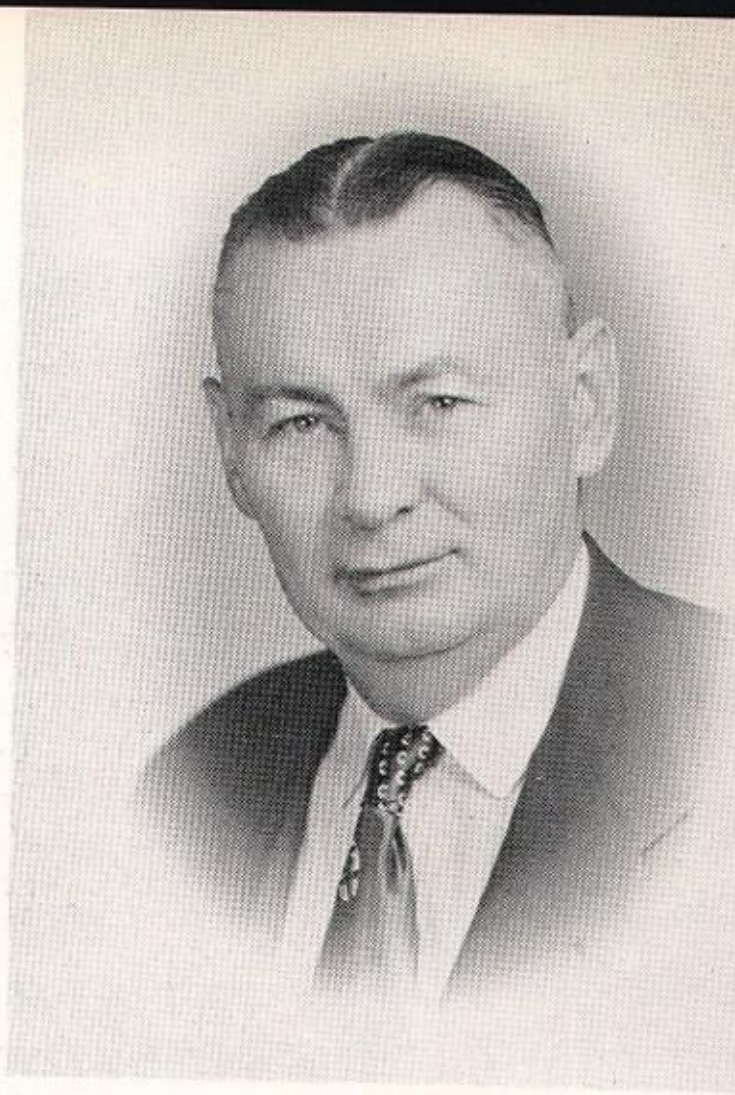
His greatest aim is to instill in students the desire to work for a worthwhile goal and to attain something better in life Mr. Heisey has inspired respect and confidence and his helpfulness and understanding have endeared him to the hearts of the students.

"Kitty" Wilson and Rosalie Ruckman, school secretaries, are shown doing their everyday duties while Gerry Hout looks on.



John McVicker, V-Principal

One of the busiest persons in the daily schedule of Fort Hill is the Vice-principal, Mr. John McVicker. His many responsibilities include handling discipline cases, attending to morning announcements, issuing locks and lockers, and planing cafeteria and study hall schedules. Mr. McVicker is always remembered for his friendliness and helpfulness.



Ralph Wimer, Guidance Dir.

As guidance counselor, Mr. Ralph Wimer has helped and encouraged many students onto the road of success. His principal duties are to assist students with personal problems and to help them select the best vocation suited for them. His continuous, conscientious guidance has endeared him to the hearts of all Hilltoppers.

Mrs. Rosalie Ruckman — School Secretaries — Mrs. "Kitty" Wilson

Mrs. Kitty Wilson and Mrs. Rosalie Ruckman, school secretaries, will long be remembered for their efficiency in making the school day run smoothly. Some of their many duties are counting the ballots for school elections, keeping financial records, and balancing the school budget.

People of Success

Working together and striving to achieve the highest goal has been the enthusiastic freshmen class of Fort Hill. They will always be remembered for their keen minds and developed habits with which they worked well together as a class. They are about to take their first steps into the senior high but will always have the respect of the other junior high students.

Chairman Charlynne Hyde displays a Clean Speech and Courtesy Campaign poster to the Jr. High winners of the contest.

Fort Hill Sentinels

Fort Hill's powerful football team proved once more to be a superior one. After having battled Frederick to a tie, the only team to hand them a defeat in the season was our school rival, Allegany. Under the guidance of their new coach, Mr. Charles Lattimer, the team played inspiring ball with fine sportsmanship and had another very successful season.

Assistant coach Mr. Dawson and coach Frank.

Hard at work are the faithful members of the BOOKROOM STAFF, C. Light, M. Dolan, and B. McClellan.

Winter

Winter

Winter on the Hilltop seems to be a season for all to enjoy. It is the time of year for the "Sabre" staff to begin work on next year's annual; for the cheerleaders to lead the basketball team on to victory; students to prepare for and take mid-year exams; seniors to be inducted into the National Honor Society; and for the musically inclined students to present the annual Christmas assembly. These are some of the occasions that make Fort Hill great! Let us journey into the past and ponder over these events.

Enjoying winter's blessing are seniors Carol Davis, Judy Wolf, Herb Heavener, and Harry Hess.

"Sabre"

Working together, the editors and staff of the yearbook produced an outstanding 1960 "SABRE." The theme, "A Time to Remember," was derived, the yearbook was outlined, and each section began making layouts, taking and identifying pictures, writing and typing copy, securing advertisers, subscribers, and patrons, preparing artwork, and finally copy reading the book. Under the capable direction of Mr. James Engle and Mr. Carl Ritchie, deadlines were met and a new "SABRE" was again published.

A Hard Luck Season

Father time, watching over the Sentinel cagers this season, has witnessed high spirit among the players and the spectators, even though hard times have prevailed. Fort Hillians have watched their team being deprived of many victories by a few points and hard luck. Through all this, high standards of sportsmanship have been preserved by the team and the students.

The squad this year, consisting of 3 seniors, 9 juniors, and 2 sophomores, has had its "off and on" days all season. It has just been fate that all the players were not on at once. This season should prove a rewarding experience for the underclassmen who will have another opportunity next year.

Coach Henrietta Snyder's red-clad girls' basketball sextet ended this season with five successive victories and only one defeat. The team has racked up numerous wins over opposing teams and has maintained an outstanding record of high standards and capability through a period of years. The girls compete with all the area high schools, displaying team work, sharp shooting, and quick thinking. They have brought honor to Fort Hill High School with their outstanding record and good sportsmanship.

Spring

Spring

Spring arrives in all its glory with the many outstanding achievements of Fort Hillians. During the season the Sentinel continues its award-winning work; the May Queen reigns over the Hilltop; the Jim Turner award is presented to an outstanding athlete; and the "Sabre" staff begins work on next year's book. Remember these special occasions as we go through the following section.

Carolyn Cooper, Mike Zembower, Marsha Adams and Fred Joyce enjoy a pleasant evening at the Junior-Senior Prom.

Enthusiastic Students

Sophomores, venturing their first steps of senior high school, show their intelligence and enthusiasm in their work and extra activities. This class participates in the annual play tournaments and sponsors an annual "hop". These students are proceeding on the path of success by going forward to greater and better achievements, aided by their adviser, Mr. Charles Smith. Following the leadership of the officers, this class strives to meet obligations bestowed on them.

Eleventh Grade

Under the direction of Mr. Samuel Layman, the juniors planned their activities successfully. Presenting "Academy Awards," they bid the seniors adieu at the Junior-Senior Farewell Assembly. In a gay array of pastel gowns and decorations, the Junior Senior Prom was presented with the theme "April In Springtime" and "April In Paris" as the song, while the yellow rose represented the class flower. Looking forward to their reign as seniors, the juniors have made a lasting impression upon their associates and much success is wished for their future.

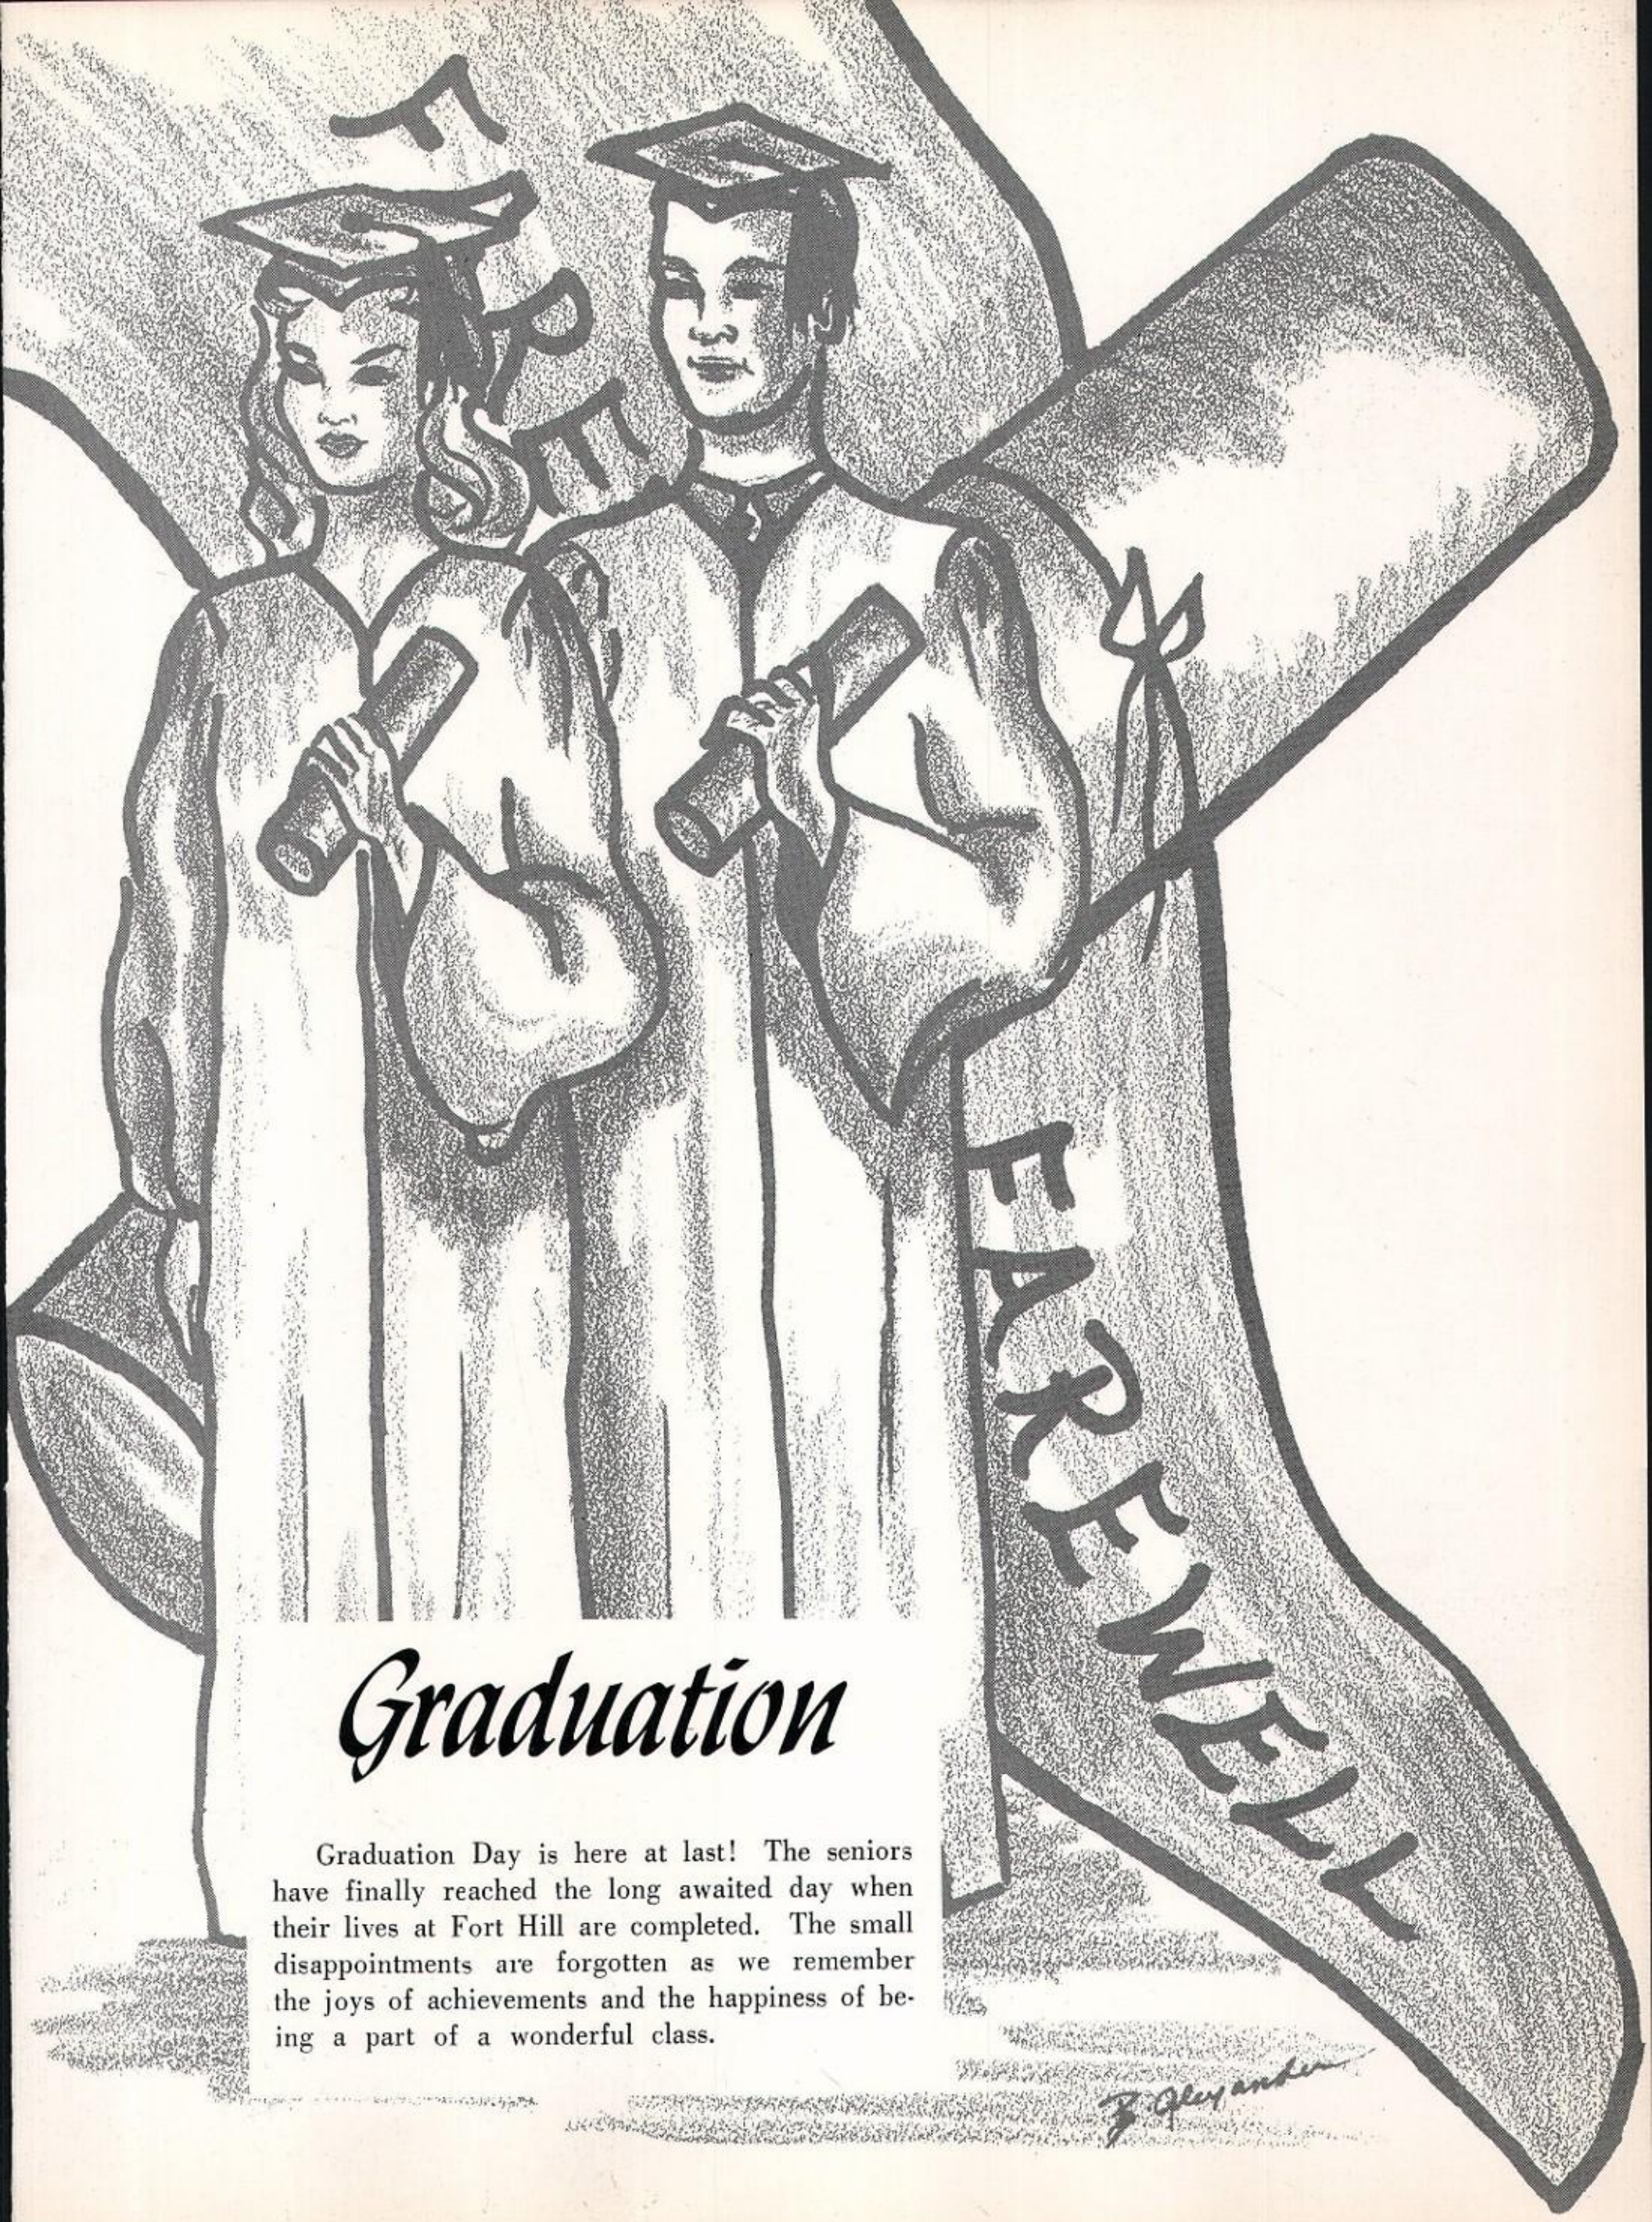
Teen Fashions

Frank Robinson agrees with most boys about wearing their hair short, while Gail Arbogast displays the latest coiffure for girls.

Joy Mathews believes that the new shorter skirts are neat, and Doug Torbet thinks sport shirts are here to stay.

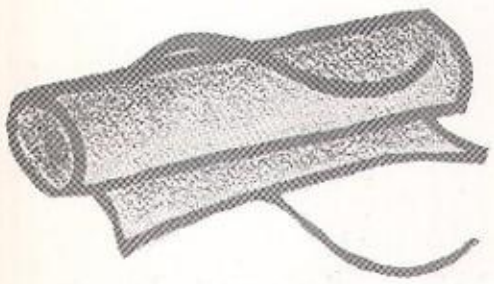


Graduation

Graduation Day is here at last! The seniors have finally reached the long awaited day when their lives at Fort Hill are completed. The small disappointments are forgotten as we remember the joys of achievements and the happiness of being a part of a wonderful class.

Outstanding Girl

A sparkling personality, an exceptional school record, and the ability for leadership are the traits which qualify Kathleen Kiiffner to be chosen as Outstanding Girl of the Sabre for 1960. The Sabre wishes success to a truly outstanding girl.



Outstanding Boy

An example of good leadership, of fine character, and of an outstanding athlete is found in Frank Robinson, who is the choice for Outstanding Boy for the 1960 Sabre. To a very deserving senior, the Sabre wishes a successful future.
